

DO NOT revise the Broadcast Ownership rules so that there is no limit to how many media outlets one can own---if anything, the 1996 law that allowed companies like Clear Channel to take over almost the entire country's local media should be rescinded. The FCC is supposed to protect the public interest, and allowing one ultraconservative company like ClearChannel to monopolize all media is NOT in the public interest and is in violation of the Antitrust Act.